DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The Applicant's amendment, filed on March 17, 2008 has been received, entered into the record, and considered.
2. As a result of the amendment, Claims 1-4 have been amended.
3. This office action is in response to applicant's amendment filed on March 17, 2008, in which claims 1-4 are presented for further examination. In response of Applicants arguments and remarks with respect to the rejection of claims 1-4 under Teng et al. (US 2002/0138577) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn.
4. Thus, Claims 1-4 are allowed.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. The present application has been thoroughly reviewed. Upon searching a variety of databases, the examiner respectfully submits that claims 1-4 are allowable in light of the Applicant's arguments and in light of the prior art made of record.

Reason for Allowance

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Upon searching a variety of databases, the Examiner respectfully submits that prior references taken either alone or in combination fail to teach in combination with the other claim limitations the combined features of Claim 1: an authentication and authorization server for managing access authentication and authorization for the domain web server and a module for authenticating the users and setting Role values in the user's cookie; the access control list synchronizing with the authorization control list, and using encryption and decryption with the user's cookie, and also a module for processing a resource request from the user web browser while extracting the role values from the user's cookie, granting access according to the user Role values, in other words, that Role values and authentication and authorization server add a significant uniqueness to the present invention and all the mentioned claimed features in conjunction with all other limitations of the dependent claims are not taught nor suggested by the prior art of record. Therefore, all pending claims 1-4 are hereby allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
